History of the Institution	Founder: Johny Bosco, popularly known as Don Bosco, was born in 1815 at Bechhi, a village near Turin, Italy. Though orphaned at the age of two, through heroic sacrifices and hard work. He acquired education and became a priest in 1841. He decided to dedicate himself to the service of youth, especially the poor and underprivileged by offering them acceptance food, lodging and education. The most significant achievement of Don Bosco was his contribution to the concept and practice of Education. Don Bosco's "Preventive System" respects every young person, even the lowliest and the 'hopeless' among them; the educator appeals to the sense of reason, creates a loving and safe environment and instils in them a sense of the Divine. Today, Don Bosco's followers known as Salesians of Don Bosco, continue to keep alive hope and cheer in the hearts of million of young people. Don Bosco institutions are spread over 130 countries around the globe. Over 2300 Salesians work with youth in 370 centres across India. Don Bosco College of Education, Karaikal is one of the 32 Don Bosco centres that offer higher education in India. Don Bosco College of Education & Research Institute came into existence with the scope of training young people in Teaching and Learning Skills of Education based on the Preventive System of Don Bosco. Since 2005, Don Bosco College of Education & Research Institute has the name and honour of training 11 batches of B.Ed graduates who are well-placed in prominent and prestigious institutions in and outside the states of Pondicherry and Tamil Nadu.
